Shri Prafulla Shah for the petitioners.

CORAM : V.C.DAGA, J.
DATED : 17.4.2006.

P.C. :

. Heard learned Counsel for the petitioners.

Perused petition and annexures thereto.

. No case is made out by the petitioner to interfere with the impugned order. The view taken by the Court below is a reasonable and possible view, in view of the fact that no evidence is available on record to show that permanent posts are available and they are being deliberately kept vacant and that the petitioners were and are not being given permanency with deliberate intention.

. Petition is devoid of any substance and it is liable to be dismissed.

. In the result, petition is dismissed in limine with no order as to costs.
